ral Natural curiosities, as curious Shells, Ores, Mettals, Minerals; and particularly, he found a very fine sort of Iron Ore on the Coast of Northumberland: he is now busy in drawing the Maps of those Shires, and intends shortly to publish them, with the Natural History of those places.

An INDEX to the 22d Vol. of the Philosophical Transactions.

A.
Bbdomen of a Man prodigiously distended with Wind, and cut 6 inches thick of Fat. No 265. p. 618.
Absces of 12 years standing opened. No 265. p. 617.
Absces at the Navel, discharging a great quantity of Prune stones. No 265. p. 617.
Age of Men. See Men.
Alkali and Acid precarious principles. No 273. p. 918.
Alum how made near Naples. No 265. p. 632.
Allantois. See Anatomical discoveries.
Ambergrice a large piece. No 263. p. 573.
Anatomical Observations and Discoveries.
Animalcules observed in Semine Masculine. No 263. p. 560. Further observations on the same. No 268. p. 739. and more on that subject. Their prodigious num-
B

Blood Venal made Arterial without passing the Heart. No 262. p. 560.

Bodkin in the Bladder. See Bladder.

Bones Human very large. No 1. p. 487. Some Bones supposed Human, were really Animals at Darwin. No 262. p. 539.

Asbestos, its manner of Spinning and Weaving. No 273. p. 911. A further account of No 276.

Atlantis of Plato, thought to be Noah's Flood. No 266. p. 685. Plato's Atlantis possibly the Isthmus between Dover and Calais. No 275. p. 973.

Books. See the end of the Index.

Brumines. Religion and Opinions: The World 2892771 years old according to them; Some remain of the Mosaic History among them: They hold the Ptolemaic System, manner of burning their holy men, &c. No 268. p. 729, &c.

Brass how made of Copper. No 260. p. 474.

Bulimia caused by Worms. No 264. p. 598.

Bullet voided by Urine. No 266. p. 689.

Butter little or none in Berry. No 273. p. 908.

C.

Calendair. See Mathematics.

Canterbury stands most on raised ground. A Roman arch 5 or 6 foot deep, inhabited about Julius Cæsar’s time. No 272. p. 884.

Cataract near Gottenburgh. No 266. p. 691.

Cecum filled with Cherry-stones causes a mortal Colic. No 165. p. 617.

Chylification how performed. No 273. p. 919.

China Varnish. See Varnish.

Circulation of the Blood. See Blood.

Cold Fermentations. See Fermentations.

Cornea of the Eye has Blood-vessels in it. No 273. p. 905.

Crabs’ Eyes described. No 266. p. 672.

D.

Arien, an account of it, and its Inhabitants. No 262. p. 538.

Death-watch, two sorts of them particularly described. No 271. p. 832.

Digestion and Chylification how performed. No 272. p. 919.

Dreams, some forts how caused. No 263. p. 568.

E.

Earthquakes, their Effects upon the Mountains about the Tungarens and Batavian Rivers. No 264. p. 598.

Earth once under water, proved by plain instances, with an Hypo\-thesis of the change. No 266. p. 683. Several changes in the Earth by the Sea. No 275. p. 967, &c. Earth in Mois grounds increase about one foot in eleven years. No 274. p. 926.

Eggs of Insects taken in with the Food. No 263. p. 572. see Insects.

Effusions from the Earth, &c. pretended to be seen with a Microscope. No 273. p. 921.

Eyes very fertile in the Orkneys. No 262. p. 444.

F.

Of the nature of Fermentation. No 273. p. 921.

A Fetus voided by the Navel. No 275. p. 1000.

Of cold Fermentations. No 274. p. 951.

Fisb. See Shell-fisb. Spawn of Fish carry’d by Ducks, &c. to Ponds where none of that kind were before. No 263. p. 57.

G.

Ganges described. No 268. p. 735.

Giants, a large discourse of them, and of large human Bones, and very tall Men. No 261. p. 487.

H.

Hemorrhage. See Bleeding. A Scale of the degrees of heat.

No 270. p. 824.

Heart, a new opinion of its be\-ing. No 263. p. 568. & No 273. p. 914.

Hippocrates Apherism of Cancers explained. No 265. p. 484.

Honey on Leaves a tranpiration from the Plant. No 273. p. 910.

Horse eating Oysters. No 269. p. 779.

Houses and Hearths in Dublin. No 261. p. 518.

Hydatides voided by Urine. No 273. p. 897.

Hypotheses of the changes that have happened in the Earth. No 266. p. 684.

I.
I.

Iliae Passion its cure. No 263. p. 569.

Of the Incubus and its cause, cure and danger if neglected. No 263. p. 565.

Inscription set up at the University of Bononia, in honour of Malpighius, No 265. p. 628. See more in Antiquities.

Ireland, an estimate of the Inhabitants, No 261. p. 520.

Journal from Scotland to Darien, No 262. p. 536.

II.

Of the Northern Languages, No 260. p. 457.

Learning, account of it in Italy, No 265. p. 627.

Illeba Insect, No 266. p. 672.

Lizard and Scilly too far Northly in the Maps by 5 leaguer, No 267. p. 725.

Lungs. a substance like their Vesels cough'd up, No 263. p. 545.

M.

Marble how stained, No 268. p. 727.

Bbbbbb
Medicine, its Theory much altered of late, No 273. p. 918.
Mercury rites in foggy weather, No 262. p. 528. See Instruments.
Microscopes extraordinary questioned, No 273. p. 904.
Monkey no bigger than a Rat, No 262. p. 539.
Monstrous Bones. See Bones.
Moss grounds grow about a foot in eleven years, No 274. p. 926.
Mountains raised and altered by Earthquakes, No 264. p. 595.

N
Aviators up the Channel advertised, No 267. p. 725.
Needle drawn out at an abscieb on the right side twelve years after, No 265. p. 617.
New inventions. See Instruments.
Numbers, a person neither writing nor reading, yet counting up great fumms, N. 272. p. 892.
Numerical figures used in England anno 1090. No 266. p. 667.

O
Oil taken in great quantities without procuring sleep, No 275. p. 999.
Orkney described, No 262. p. 544.
Oysters eaten by a Horse greedily, No 269. p. 779.

P
A Double Pear, No 260. p. 476.
Philosophy Cor pulcicular and Mathem. cultivated at Naples, No 265. p. 629.
Polypus near the Spleen, No 266. p. 689. In the Pulmonalis Vena, No 270. p. 797.
Powder'd Blues passing the Lacteals No 270. p. 819.

R
Razors, their edges observed, No 273. p. 931.
Religion and Rites, with other matters concerning the Bramins, No 268. p. 733.
Roman Antiquities. See Antiquities.
Romney marsh lower now than the Sea, No 275. p. 971.

S
Salts, the quantity of Acid and Volatile contained in acid Spirits, No 262. p. 530.
Sal ammoniac native got by Naples, different from the factitious, No 265. p. 634.
Sands flying at Wanton in Leicestershire, No 263. p. 564.
Sea, what changes it has caused on the face of the Earth, No 366. p. 684. No 275. p. 972.
Shells, Beds of Oyster-Shells near Reading with the several Strata of the Earth, No 261. p. 484. Shells in the Quarries near Broughton in Leicestershire, No 266. p. 677. See Subterraneous Shells in the Moluccas described, No 274. p. 926.
Shells and Insects from Fort St George, No 271. p. 859. Smells curing Madnens. See Madness.
Extraordinary Spasms canis in the Children of 2 Families, No 270. p.799.
Spawn of Fish carried by Ducks,
&c. to other places, No 263.
p. 570.
Spiders, their Generation, way of catching their prey; spinning,
Spleen only free from Worms, No 263. p. 572.
Trees squared and Iron Instruments found under ground in Hatfield-Chase, No 275. p. 980. Subterraneous Trees in several parts of the world, No 275. p. 985.
Stone, a Seed from Ceylon of great good against it, No 268. p. 760.
Stones in the Gall Bladder their mischief, No 264. p. 611. Stone in a ChildsBladder, with a Flint in it, No 266. p. 689. Stone with Hair in it, in the Bladder, No 266. p. 688. Discovery of a cheat of a Boy, that pretended to Pits Stones, No 266.
p. 688.
Subterraneous Fires boiling the Coppers, &c. in the Alum-works, No 265. p. 634. Shellfish of several sorts found under ground. Oysters near Reading, No 261 p. 484. Shells near Broughton, No 266. p. 677. Shells bedded in a Clay substance, No 266.
p. 679. Several sorts of Soil peculiar to some sorts of Shells, No 266. p. 679. 680. a Black Fossil wood. SupposedOak.
No 268. p. 764. Shells found at Reculver, No 268. p. 763. Large Bones underground, No 272. p.
p. 978.
Sulphur how got, No 265. p. 634.
Surgery indifferently practiced all over Italy, No 265. p. 631.
Systeme of the indentings of the leaves of Plants promised, No 911.

T.

Eeth and Bones very large found under ground, No
272. p. 882. Worms in the Teeth
the same as those in the Cheese, &c. turn to Aurelia’s, No 265.
p. 636.
Thames possibly once flowed up near as far as Oxford, No 275.
p. 977.
Thermometer near the line 2 divisions below extreme heat, No
264. p. 577.
Thunder and Lightning, an account of it at Leeds and Holbeck,
No 264. p. 577, 578.
Tornadoes bring a thinking Rain breeding Maggots, No 268. p.
738.
Observables in Human Twins, No
271. p. 844.
Tycho Brahe’s Observatory, its Ruines, No 266. p. 692.

V.

Varnish Chinese the several forts how made, most of the Ingredients to be seen in the Royal Society’s Repository, No 262.
p. 525. Its strange effects, raising blisters, &c. No 274. p. 947.
Urines in the Fattus pales by the Urachus, and not by the Ure-thara, No 271. p. 841. Hydatides voided by Urine, No 273.
p. 897.
Uterus, whether its Tunioles thicken in pregnantibus, No 789.
269. p.

W.

Water taken in at St Jago’s takes fire upon opening the Bung, but stifled by fitting on it, No 268. p. 738.
Observation of a Waterfont in the Downs, No 270. p. 825.
Water, its different tafes when raw, but little, and much boy’d,
No 273. p. 920. a sort of Volatile Salt found in Water, when raw, but not when long boil’d,
No.
hepate. No 263. p. 571.
Brown's East India Plants, See Plants
puta in the Index.
Dek Motu Bilia circulari, Dissertatio
anatomico Medica. No 264. p 610.
Recherches sur la nature et Guerison des Cancers. No 266. p 476.
Petri Chirac M. D. de motu Cordis
No 263. p. 559.
Flora Norimbergenis. 265. p. 651. 110.
Solutio Geometrica Probl. Vivianor-Gesueus MS. Herbal delineated in co-652.
Dissertatio de Precub. No 263. p. 565.
Dissertatio de Pulsioni Cellae in Globuli Plumb. praerendi. No 263.
567.
Dr. Hicke of the Anient Northern Languages. No 265. p. 467.
Differtiones Jastrophysica Auth. Do-918.
Malphigius other posthumous Works
besides what already Printed men-
Description of the Islands of Orkney Pharmacopæia Harlemanea. No 264.
p. 610.
Profavus Ventris, or the Nature of Loosenesses. By Dr. Cockburn. No 270.
p. 829.
Sanctoris Medicina Statuts cum Com-mentarijs Dr Lister. No 270. p.
832.
Proposals for Printing the 31 and last Vol. of New Hist. of Plants
No 170. p. 833.
A Treatise of Boralus de Velatu homo-ium, left out of his Book de Motu animalium now in Rome. No 264.
p. 614.
Dissertatio de Ulcre Verrimino Auth.
579.
Aloisii Ferdinandi No. 2 Danub. opus
ex prodromus. No 276. p. 1038

BOOKS.
Of Which some account is given in these Translations.

A Count of severall Treatises promised to be Printed at Rome, particularly a Catalogue of all the MS in Italy. No 265. p. 629.
Account of some new Books and MS
in Italy. No 264. p. 613. No 273,
p. 898.
Account of some Books Printing in 1042. and in Italy, &c. 16. p. 1042.
Description de la piece d'Ambergrit,
&c. No 263. p. 572.
Dyfr. Bisalos obser vari de Animalcula in ovino aliorum; animantium

Errata: Emitterum,

Theb. 277. Pag. 970. f. 4. for Stone, read St. &p. 972. f. 3. half an hour or more, f. 974. f. 4. in

Printed for C. Whick and B. Walford, Printers to the Royal Society, at the 3d Arms in St. Paul's Church. 1705.